- The college has Feedback Committee which remains working throughout the Academic Year under the guidance of IQAC.
- The Feedback Committee collects feedback of three types from the regular students of the final year, alumni and teachers on curriculum.
- The questionnaires are prepared by the committee through which the students, alumni, and the teachers are asked to provide their feedback on curriculum.
- At least 10% students of the final year at UG and PG are given the feedback forms to be filled.
- At least 10% alumni are given feedback form to be filled.
- 20 to 50 % teachers are given feedback forms to be filled.
- Later on, the Feedback Committee makes numerical and pictorial analysis of the questionnaires filled by the students, alumni, and teachers.
- The analysed data is provided to the head of the institution for observation and the action to be taken.
- The positive observations are appreciated and the negative observations are taken seriously for remedies. The institutions takes decision to start remedial programmes to meet requirements with the consent of CDC.
- The analysis and action taken report is communicated to IQAC for quality improvement and enrichment of the curriculum at college level by introducing certificate courses as per the need.
